One Wish

What's your wish? Well I'm going to tell you about my one wish. My wish is to go to Atlanta, because I want to go to Six Flags, Martin Luther King Jr museum and to go to see the superstars.

My wish is to go to Atlanta so I can go to three Six Flags, Martin Luther King museum and to see the superstars. The reason I want to go to Six Flags for is because that got scary rides. The reason I want to go there is because they got a arcade room. I want to go there because they have rides you can get wet on.

Another reason why I wish to go there is because I want to go see Martin Luther King Jr. museum. I want to go there for is to see why he was in jail, why he stand up for our rights. What he was doing when he wasnt doing speech. That's reason I want to go there.

The third reason I wish to go to Atlanta is to go see the superstars. The reason I wish to see the superstars. Because I want to see what they look like in real life. I want to get there autograph. I want to see if they entry in little kids to get parts in there tv shows. That's reason I want go.

So I told you why I wish to go to Atlanta. What is you wish, were would you like to go.

Maybe one day we can make our dream come true.

Score Point: 3

This response reflects a limited degree of proficiency in expository writing skills. The writer wishes to visit Atlanta and provides reasons for having this wish come true (to go to Six Flags, to see the Martin Luther King, Jr. museum, and to see the superstars). Each of the reasons is explained with a list but there is little development. Although the response is organized, further development of the key ideas would be required for a higher score. In addition, the writer displays a pattern of errors in usage and sentence structure.
